Case No. C06-5346RJB

ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANT STATE OF WASHINGTON'S MOTION TO EXTEND
DEADLINES AND RE-
NOTING DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

This matter comes before the court on Defendant State of Washington's Motion to Extend Deadlines (Dkt. 15). The court has considered the pleadings filed in support of and in opposition to the motion and the file herein.

I. BACKGROUND AND DISCUSSION

Pending before the court are the defendants' motion for summary judgment (Dkt. 12) and the plaintiffs' motion for partial summary judgment (Dkt. 17). The plaintiffs also move for partial summary judgment in their response, raising arguments that are substantially identical to those contained in the motion for partial summary judgment (Dkt. 19). The defendants' reply does not address this portion of the response. This motion is not noted in accordance with Local Rule CR 7(d)(3). Because the defendants' motion for summary judgment and the plaintiffs' cross motion for partial summary judgment address the same issues, they should be noted for consideration at the same time. The court should therefore re-note the defendants' motion for consideration concurrent with the plaintiffs' motion for partial summary judgment.

1 The defendants seek an extension of the deadlines for the discovery conference, initial
2 disclosures, and joint status report in order to “conserve resources of the parties.” Dkt. 15 at 2.
3 Specifically, they would like the deadlines reset for thirty days after the court issues its order on 4 the defendants’ motion for summary judgment because a judgment in their favor would render
5 discovery unnecessary. Counsel for the defendants conferred with plaintiffs’ counsel to seek a
6 stipulation but did not receive a response. Dkt. 16 at 1-2.

7 The plaintiffs filed a response opposing the motion. They contend that the defendants are 8 still fully capable of complying with the deadlines despite the pendency of the motions for 9 summary judgment and that a delay would not preserve their resources. The plaintiffs do not 10 contend that a delay would be prejudicial, and the affidavits supporting the response seek 11 additional time for discovery. Dkt. 21 at 6, Dkt. 22 at 2. The court should therefore grant the 12 motion and extend the deadlines.

13 II. ORDER

14 Therefore, it is hereby

15 ORDERED Defendant State of Washington’s Motion for Summary Judgment (Dkt. 12)
16 is RE-NOTED for consideration on September 29, 2006. Defendant State of Washington’s
17 Motion to Extend Deadlines (Dkt. 15) is GRANTED as follows: (1) The FRCP 26f Conference
18 Deadline is 10/11/2006. (2) The Initial Disclosure Deadline is 10/18/2006; and (3) The Joint
19 Status Report is due by 10/25/2006.

20 The Clerk of the Court is instructed to send uncertified copies of this Order to all counsel
21 of record and to any party appearing pro se at said party’s last known address.

22 DATED this 8th day of September, 2006.
